The Good Old Times

The time is within the memory of multitudes still living when strong able bodied men even in the United States used to work from sunrise to sunset for twenty five to fifty cents per day and those were men who had families to support Many who read this paper have either labored themselves for such wages, or hired others to labor at no greater compensation And even these wages was not always received in payment the laborer was often compelled to take his pay in corn, rye, or in an order on the store There was little or no money in the country Almost every family had to make its own clothing by slow and laborious processes few being rich enough to buy We had few manufacturing establishments, and the cash we were able to obtain we parted with for articles of foreign manufacture That was the glorious era approximating to free trade, which some are now so very anxious to restore Those who remember what the condition of the working people of the country was forty, or even twenty years ago, will be able to recall labors, struggles and privations to which people in these times are total strangers

Have we, then, are the croakings of those who pretend to commiserate the condition of working people at this time and who refer to their lot of a few years ago as something very felicitous and desirable This kind of argument might do well enough with a lamp post for its second but with men who may reason calmly it is ridiculous In nothing else is the progress of these times so strikingly manifested as in the improved condition of the masses of the laboring classes, as compared with what it was in the last generation The contrast is a most telling one With him who is not convinced by a contrast so eloquent, it would be useless to attempt to reason Yet day by day it is dinned in our ears that "the rich are growing richer and the poor poorer, that working people no longer have any encouragement or hope, and that they are falling into a most unhappy and deplorable condition, with no prospect of better things The wonder is that they who talk and croak in this way are not always met with the contempt and derision which they deserve

The statements by the 'Ring' Organ

In defending the school fund swindle the Herald says it to say -

The lock company obligate themselves to pay to the School Fund ten per cent. of the gross receipts passing boats through the locks

Now why should the Herald make an unfounded a statement? Here is the exact language of the act.

It is further provided that the issuance and payment of said bonds shall be made upon the express condition that said corporation shall pay to the State of Oregon ten per centum of the profits arising from the tolls collected for passing freights and passengers through said canal and locks, which kind of ten per centum of net profits shall be paid into the common school fund of this State

Does the Herald know the difference between "gross receipts" and "net profits?" The Legislature knew the difference, and when a responsible company offered to construct the locks for a smaller subsidy, and to pay into the school fund ten per cent of the gross receipts, the Democratic majority in that body voted the proposition down, and gave the subsidy to the Kelly Miller ring on their own terms, that is to say, on condition that they would pay ten per cent. of the net profits into the school fund. The gross receipts would be the whole earnings of the company, the net profits will be what they have left after paying all expenses out of the gross receipts. Ten per cent of the gross receipts would amount to a very large sum, ten per cent of the net profits will be nothing. The company will manage it so that there will be no net profits to pay

In another respect also the organ of the plundering ring falsifies It says

The school fund will receive a toll of five cents upon the passage of every ton of freight, and one cent toll on every passenger.

Not one word of this can be found in the act. The company is not bound by the act to collect these tolls or pay them into the school fund What does the Herald mean by making such unfounded statements? Can it expect to establish its assertions in the very teeth of the letter of the act?

This transaction is a swindle on the school fund, it is a swindle throughout, and has no redeeming feature whatever The organ of the "ring" may as well cease trying to defend the robbery.

Let Us Have Peace

Some time ago the Herald published several elaborate articles reviewing the political situation by Congressional districts throughout the country, and establishing the theory, to its own satisfaction, that its party would have a majority in the next Congress They were to elect seven members in Ohio, six in Pennsylvania, one in Maine, two in Indiana, and all the rest, they haven't gained half so many so far as the Herald counted on That paper and the other organs of its party now admit that they have no possible chance of a majority in the next Congress So the Herald in a spirit of serene philosophy that does it credit, says, "We don't know but it would be as well to let the Radicals keep control two years longer in order to fully bear the responsibility" Now that's what we call reasonable. And considerate And sensible This kindness in allowing the Radicals to keep control is really commendable It is touching It would argue great insensibility on our part did we omit to tender thanks for it. Now that the Herald has consented to let us have the next Congress as the next thing, let us have peace

Allons George Francis Train is at Marseilles, and has been appointed to a command in the National Guard Now let the Germans beware They managed to stand against Victor Hugo, but how will they meet George Francis Train? They will be scorched and withered and blasted by those fiery proclamations, those speaking thunderbolts, for which Train is so justly famous No wonder the Germans are hastening to make peace It is George Francis Train who is saving France The native Frenchmen are nowhere!

"Sunset Cox one of Tammany's candidates for Congress recently made a speech in which he asked

Why should we labor, why groan under the weight of four or five hundred millions of tax with a plethoric treasury and a great army of office-holders and tax-collectors, in order to pay off the debt in ten years?

The New York Tribune answers very effectively by telling Cox that when Congress at the late session passed the bill to reduce the taxes by $80 000,000 per annum he carping Cox, voted against it

Mrs Youngman of Lee county, Ill., has fallen heir to an estate in Scotland, valued at $2,500,000

From the Albany Register Judge Kelsay has commenced the practice of law in Linn county

Mrs. Delazon Smith will start back from Iowa next month a companied by her aged mother

Nobody in Albany was in luck enough to draw a prize in the Mercantile Library Lottery, though many Albanians were in candidates

Capt W W Mitchell has turned over Indians and property of the Reservation at Warm Springs to Capt John Smith, the old Agent who is now in charge

The Dalles Mountaineer learns that Lieut James Halloran formerly of that place, has sold 200 feet of quartz in Arizona, which didn't cost him a red for $20,000 Lucky

The Bed Rock Democrat says that there are over 500 men now employed on the Burnt River ditch, and that it is expected that it will be ready next spring to furnish 5 000 inches of water

From the Farmer Mr Henry Denlinger, long connected with the publication business in this State has taken up a claim on the Yaquina Bay and proposes making an honest farmer of himself

The Albany Democrat says that forty lots belonging to the estate of Harvey Gordon deceased, were lately sold at auction, bringing an average of $240 per lot, which one year ago would not have brought half that sum

At the October term of the Circuit Court for Linn county, which has just closed, Alexander Reynolds got a judgment against G B Howard for defamation of character to the amount of $250 The suit was brought for $10 000 damages

Dr J H McCord, the Clairvoyant and Magnetic Physician was on the 4th inst., convicted of rape upon the person of Mrs Amanda Crawford, wife of Alex Crawford of Brownsville and sentenced to three years imprisonment—the lowest limit of the law for the crime named

From the Dalles paper "We are informed that Messrs Dehm and Looher of this city, drew a prize of $400 in the late San Francisco Mercantile Lottery Also that the company who had fifty tickets drew one prize of $100 These are all the prizes drawn in this vicinity that we have heard of

The Baker City Democrat of the 2d says "Two Indians and a son of Louis Morange, a few days since passed through this place, on their way to Walla Walla, having in their possession fifteen head of horses, which they took from a white man on Snake River It seems that some white man had stolen seven of these horses from the Indians They came upon his tent after dark, but the thief had fled So they secured their own horses, and also eight others which they found with theirs, believing them to be stolen likewise

CALIFORNIA AND NEVADA

The papers have been issued for the First National Gold Bank of San Francisco, capital $100,000.

The Children's Festival, held at the City Garden in San Francisco a few days ago, for the benefit of the German Sanitary Fund, netted $2 500

Considerable snow has fallen in the Sierra Nevada Mountains along the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, and a train that lately arrived in Sacramento from the East was completely covered with it.

The commissioners appointed to appraise the property along the line of the extension of Montgomery street, San Francisco, to be called Montgomery Avenue, have been prosecuting their labors for several months, and expect to complete their report in about six weeks. A Street Commissioner in such a case, must be a pretty good thing.

On the morning of the 17th ult., while the men were firing up the Stateforlit furnace at Mineral Hill, Nevada, an explosion took place in the water chamber, blowing off the cast iron top of the furnace, and throwing Mr Wm. Drury, who was engaged in attending to the pulp up against the side of the house In falling he passed through the top of the furnace, going to the bottom, a distance of thirty feet, and landing amid the hot pulp and ashes, burning both eyes out and scorching his face and tongue in a most horrible manner He remained in the furnace some minutes before any help could be had He lingered about six hours after being taken out, and had his senses to the end, although he must have suffered intense misery Mr Pringle, Superintendent of the mill, was blown some distance, but not seriously injured

POLITICAL NOTES

The New York Herald of the 23d of October says that Morrell will contest the election of Speer in the Pennsylvania Seventeenth district

The labor reformers in Kansas are in a quandary Their leader has gone back on them—sold them out to the Democracy—by withdrawing from the race for Congress and nominating a Democrat to take his place on the labor reform ticket

A Boston paper has this "The lowering of the United States flag at Savanah, on the occasion of the death of General Lee brings to mind the order of Gen Dix when Lee and his friends were engaged extensively in that business in the early part of the war"

The Democratic papers were whining, a little while ago, because the President did not pardon the Fenians, but let these "champions of Irish liberty rot in prison." Now that the President has pardoned them, they growl, and say he did it only to catch Irish votes You cannot satisfy these fellows anyway.

The National Intelligencer, having had respectable death and burial at Washington, at the age of seventy, has been resuscitated in New York city by Alex Delmar It appears as a small weekly at $5 a year It is devoted chiefly to an attempt to vindicate Delmar's absurd statistics, and neither resembles the old Intelligencer in appearance nor anything else Delmar ought to be severely dealt with as a shameless resurrectionist

The Richmond Despatch (Democratic) commending upon the elections in Ohio and Pennsylvania, wonders how long it will be before a decent and intelligent party manager will rise up to help the Northern Democracy, and says The truth is, the Northern Democrats have not the snot or good sense or wisdom or what you will to make up good issues The Southern Democrats formerly made them up for them, and they were always successful

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 7 1870

CITY.

Late Matters.—Coal of an inferior quality in large quantity has been lately discovered at Point.

The Rose of the Columbia has been chartered to load this city excellent grain cargo for Liverpool.

The bark Wolfe now lying at the O R & N wharf, Portland, will be towed over to the Oregon wharf, Saturday morning, and will be loaded with wheat for San Francisco.

The bark Zephyr will go to Sprague's dock Saturday to complete her cargo with wheat. When loaded she will carry about 500 tons miscellaneous property.

The Register of the Oregonian won an election bet to-day, Saturday morning, by having his head shaved.

Two mail sacks were received from the East by express last Saturday, in consequence of a failure of railroads to connect.

The United States Circuit Court for Clarke county will convene at Vancouver to-day.

Passenger trade both by rail and steamers are greatly improving within the last few days.

The bark Whistler was reported off the Columbia river Saturday morning.

Mr. Pressley Pestering.—Notwithstanding the fact that our city is blessed with a Metropolitan police force—an institution which it was promised would be the panacea for all the ills to which our city groaned, under said government—our streets and door yards are infested and annoyed still by predatory droves of cows and mixed cattle, and swine with devilish proclivities. They gang in bovine gangs and herds, night and day, and night and day the gates they find and to all with a will do they enter. Is a fresh outbreak of them expected, or have they had feared some faint rumors of the reappearance of the incarnate spirit of mischief within the last sixty days and had laid low at the conclusion that a cap[illegible] Pup hang crash goes the [illegible] gates don't open to pressure [illegible] twigs and limbs of favorite trees [illegible] bulbs tinkle tinkle [illegible] clang go the bells the night long [illegible] they fly together out from bed [illegible] there is insanity to come of all [illegible] dire of chattels, unless the [illegible] come to our rescue We appeal to [illegible] to enforce the ordinance against [illegible] large of horses, cattle and swine [illegible]

Theatres.—On Saturday evening we had the gratification of the difference there is between an audience in which each actor and actress has his or her own part and one in which two of them carry the burdens of the performance. The other night "The Pride of Kildare," a beautiful comedy, was mangled by the shortcomings of some of the people [illegible] they limp and flat upon an unappreciative audience. Saturday evening it was [illegible] in such vastly better style as to [illegible] quite another play, and the audience [illegible] applause, as it deserved. The [illegible] brought out a number of fine [illegible] were smothered dead dead, in the [illegible] and placed the play among the [illegible] achieved by the management. [illegible]'s Cabin' was also performed very [illegible] entirely to the satisfaction of the [illegible] popular drama will be reproduced [illegible] last time, with an excellent after [illegible]

Unclaimed Packages.—The sale on [illegible] unclaimed packages in Wells, Fargo [illegible] was largely attended, and muchly [illegible] We hear of quite a number of [illegible] parties invested to a considerable [illegible] the sum which must have been put up [illegible] Baker, containing almanacs of an [illegible] the insurance circulars, old hats [illegible] and preparations, and no [illegible] articles not unusually rated under [illegible] "or suggestive adjective [illegible] for buyers, however, a very few, [illegible] bought, and went away happy [illegible] throughout the sale—that [illegible] Stephenson's leading materialist, and, at the close, the lucky and the [illegible] satisfying feeling that they were about [illegible] the sweets anyway.

Time Tables.—By advertisement in [illegible], it will be seen that the [illegible] East Portland and Salem are run [illegible] time table. They leave East [illegible] 4:20 P M and 9 A M, ar[illegible] 11:30 A M, 3 15 P M and [illegible] Salem at 7:30 A M 2 P M and [illegible] East Portland at 11 15 A [illegible], and 5:50 P M The A M [illegible] trains from East Portland and the [illegible] O F P M. trains from Salem run [illegible] Sunday) The 9 00 A M train [illegible] Portland, and the 1 30 P M train [illegible] Tuesday Sunday

Items.—Just now, things must be [illegible] the Railroad Company's saw [illegible] supply of railroad ties being [illegible] This mill is being worked to its ut[illegible] and at is—to keep the track [illegible] going on. In the logging business, alone, [illegible] twenty-five yokes of oxen are em[illegible] whole camp is a constant scene of [illegible] and slight. There are some [illegible] who ought to visit that mill [illegible] first peep at the regular genuine [illegible]

Mill.—Mr L B Benchley we understand in Oregon, made partial arrangements for the formation of a company to build a [illegible] mill, near this city on the line of [illegible] and California Railroad While in [illegible] he purchased largely of flax seed for his [illegible] and we presume that if it is [illegible] some to Oregon for seed, to procure a [illegible] the profits of the business of manufacturing [illegible] be greatly enhanced in this State [illegible] mission build here

Left at Astoria.—Mrs Mattie Field, [illegible] returned from a successful visit to [illegible] on, is going by steamer to Astoria [illegible] will deliver one or more lectures [illegible] France and Prussia and on wo[illegible] We commend her to our Astoria [illegible] as lecturers amply capable of pleasing [illegible] them, and we hope they will give [illegible] a chance.

Hay.—We see it stated that Joe Reil [illegible] crop, consisting of various and sundry [illegible] tame and wild, cultivated quadrupeds, [illegible] and otherwise etc, will be open [illegible] day and to-morrow, on Washington street [illegible] Club Room The curious [illegible] all to swarm in that direction

Sails.—The steamship California, Gregory [illegible] now out from San Francisco for this [illegible] advertised to sail hence on Saturday the [illegible] The propeller Geo S Wright is advertised [illegible] for San Juan Fort Tongas Fort [illegible] and Sitka, on Tuesday, the 8th inst

Appointments.—Gen Bell, of Second [illegible] Brig. Gen. Millis has made the following [illegible] Maj S V Foller A A G and [illegible] Chief Maj Lewis Weatherford Sur[illegible] Capt William F Williams A D C [illegible] Chisholm, A D C

Grand Day Passed.—The time for serving [illegible] to commence a suit in the approaching [illegible] the Circuit Court for this county passed [illegible] day. The calendar is by far the largest [illegible] ever been presented at any one term [illegible]

Death.—Mr Charles Goodnough has received [illegible] news of the death of his little boy aged 5 [illegible] at Jersey City N J on Friday evening [illegible] Mrs. Goodnough and the family left Oregon [illegible] the Atlantic States on a visit, in July [illegible]

U. S. Circuit Court.—Sawyer and Deady [illegible] Saturday November 5 John R Lamb et [illegible] A. Davenport et al The day was occupied [illegible] hearing argument of counsel continued [illegible] Monday morning

Military and Drill.—The Washington Guard [illegible] Kennett Guard of this city will have a [illegible] inspection and drill next Friday [illegible]

County Court.—The County Court, Judge [illegible] presiding, will begin its November term [illegible] at the Court House [illegible]

First District, Oregon.—The Sherman mine [illegible] and second right, have been sold to a [illegible] Company for $65 000 The property has [illegible] and—has the name of the Sher[illegible]

THE TERRITORIES

"A fool for luck" is the old adage The Olympia Tribune argues that there are no fools in that place, because nobody drew a prize in the Library lottery

The Owyhee Avalanche says Phillip Kuhlhey got back from Texas a few days ago, having brought a drove of 1 600 head of cattle as far as Bear river, Utah He came ahead to look out for winter quarters and returned to pilot in the herd

From the Idaho World Samuel Pearsall committed suicide by blowing the top of his head off with a rifle near the Harris toll gate last Saturday Unsuccessful mining operations supposed to have been the cause Another unfortunate named John Maurer a native of Voglesbach, Germany shot himself through the head last week There must be a mania for felo de se in the Basin

The water is being hoisted from the Ore Fine mine Owyhee, at the rate of 50 buckets per hour each bucket holding about 100 gallons It is necessarily a slow and tedious operation on account of the immense quantity of water in the various slopes and drifts but it is expected that the mine will be clear of water in about two weeks The water is used for sluicing purposes at the mouth of the New York tunnel, where parties are at work night and day

On Olympia paper of the 29th ult says "A party consisting of James Jordan Ben Cook, D Edgerton and Peter Donnelly, went out with pack animals this week to find if possible, and bring in the remains of Michael Jordon Jas Carrol and John Fogle who were killed by the Indians in 1864 They also intend to bring in the remains of Casey who was killed in the Jennings fight It will be remembered that this creek was named after Jordon who with both Carrol and Fogle we believe, belonged to the original prospectors who discovered the Jordon Creek diggings When brought in, the bones of these brave pioneers should be consigned to their last resting places with appropriate ceremonies

The Missoula (Montana) Pioneer learns that Dick Moore was shot at Louisville Cedar Creek lately by one Dave Lyons It appears that Dick Moore formerly constable at Louisville was walking up street to Dennis Sheehy's saloon in company with a brother of the latter when they were hailed by Dave Lyons, armed with a double barreled shot gun saying if they did not stop he would shoot 'Sheehy jumped one side and Lyons almost simultaneously with the threat fired riddling Mr Moore from the abdomen to the breast Lyons immediately decamped for the mountains A posse of citizens started in pursuit and succeeded in capturing him They brought him back to Louisville where the majority of the people were in favor of hanging him right away Mr Moore died a few hours after he was shot.

The Pension Roll

According to the report of the Pension Bureau just published the whole amount paid during the last fiscal year to invalid army pensioners was $9 003 913 13, and to widows and orphans and dependents $18 328 306 07 making a total of $27 332 020 20 which includes the expenses of disbursing agencies There were 149 original applications for navy pensions amounting to $13 098 88 eighty eight for increase pensions of an aggregate of $3 325 and sixty original applications of widows orphans and dependents of those who died of disease incurred in the naval service at an annual aggregate of $21 000 and twenty pensioners of the same class were increased annually $1 560 On the 13th of June 1870 there were 1 334 invalid naval pensioners on the rolls and 1 613 orphans

At the date of the last annual report there were upon the pension rolls 887 widows of the Revolutionary war This number had on the 30th of June 1870 by death and the act of July 28 1866 been reduced to 727 On account of the small number of deaths reported in the late preceding years occurring among those aged pensioners this office has made diligent efforts since last report to obtain many facts pertaining to the condition of the beneficiaries of the government These inquiries have elicited 683 responses from post masters reporting 495 living on January 1 1870 58 as having died during previous years Some post masters report no such pensioners as those named living within their delivery districts

The Great Lottery

Baldwin Raffle and Sale Mania

From the San Francisco Bulletin

The drawing of the Mercantile Library Lottery began in San Francisco at noon on the 31st inst and is still in progress It has not been the only business of the day it has been the leading business As many as ten thousand persons are on the ground at the Pavilion where the drawing is taking place and thousands have gathered at the newspaper and telegraph offices on Montgomery and California streets where the lucky numbers and amounts of prizes are displayed conspicuously as soon as announced The people have been the crowds at times that the middle of the street has been blocked with teams and cars unable to pass Every class of people is represented there the rags from the mansion of means who bought a few tickets to help the Library or for fun to the poor washerwoman or servant girl who has stuck all her hard earning on a desperate chance of making a fortune All are quiet wearing in their faces an expression of intense interest sometimes of painful anxiety and many busily copy the figures upon catalogues prepared for the occasion Only the announcement of a large prize—sometimes well up in the hundreds and thousands causes any excitement or sensation All watch the movements of the men pasting prizes in the stalls on the bulletin boards and windows as if they were the arbiters of destiny In the lavish use of a large number of women are seen in the galleries while the floor is entirely covered with men The arrangements for the drawing and for the announcement of results are admirably systematic and convenient Every person in the immense building covering nearly a block of land can hear and see all that is going on The crowd here is also very orderly An occasional laugh is heard breaking the monotonous buzz of conversation and at intervals the music swells its responsive strains from the rear hall which comparatively few visit Only when a large prize is drawn does the great crowd of human beings relieve itself with a yell that sounds like a mingling of despair and derision

All this strenuous excitement—this painful absorption in a desperate hope of sudden wealth—is lamentable yet instructive The extent to which it has demoralized the community can hardly be estimated The loss of means to many poor persons will be trifling compared with the agony of disappointment and the quickened impulse given to vicious tendencies It is probably within the bounds of truth to say that at least one-half of our population are directly interested as ticket or coupon holders in the lottery, and have had more or less hope of drawing a prize The excellence of the object had in view by the projectors of the scheme the relief of a great library from a crushing debt—together with the fact that it had the special sanction of law has induced many to buy who would not otherwise have done so, and thus one of the best of motives has been one of the means of reawakening the most insidious of passions which has penetrated to the family circle the school room and church. The result is a relaxation of the moral barrier to gambling That vice is not so disreputable in public estimation as it was before and we are told by well informed persons that every form of it, professional or otherwise, open or concealed has been stimulated since the Mercantile Library scheme was farily under way This was the result anticipated, and it was for this reason that we felt called upon to condemn the scheme

Undoubtedly it has been conducted with the utmost honesty and fairness toward the public who have patronized it, and it has thoroughly accomplished its object, for the Library Association is relieved of debt, is the unembarrassed owner of the fine building it occupies, and can devote its funds hereafter to enlarging its usefulness There is reason to rejoice at this—but what a stigma it is on San Francisco, with its 150 000 people, its $26 000 000 of wealth its $61 000 000 of banking capital its boasted reputation for liberality that it could not save such an institution by any other means! We were getting used to the idea that industry and economy were the only sure roads to competence that any form of gambling was an offence against society and private interests. Our laws against games of chance and lotteries were more strict and better enforced than in most of the older States Suddenly the Library Lottery is sprung upon us, with all its demoralizing influence And then what miserable economy it is! Here was a debt of $250 000 dollars or $300 000 and to pay that $1 000,000 must be raised from the sparse population on this coast—for the greater part of it was paid here—a large percentage must be given to agents a whole multitude of expenses must be met, the whole community thrown into a state of unhealthy excitement, $500 000 sunk totally! Certainly that is no more creditable to the business population of San Francisco than its morality

We can only hope that this will be the end of legalized lotteries for any purpose, and that the law suspended in this one case will be invoked against every scheme attempted in its wake If, out of the reaction and self reproach which must result there should grow a disposition to aid more liberally in legitimate ways institutions of letters art and science in the metropolis and elsewhere this relapse from correct ideas and practices may not be altogether an unmixed evil

A man in Indiana the other day lost a cow by allowing her to travel at will on the railroad and the company refused to reimburse him He proceeded to collect his pay singularly by taking up a rail and allowing a train to run over an embankment The engineer and fireman were killed

A good deal of consolation offered in the world is about as soothing as the assurance of the man to his wife when she fell into the river You'll find a pearl at the bottom my dear

System Run Down.

Persons often allow their systems to run down or fail to run down by over work accompanied by a neglect of the proper means of invigoration The result is what is called GENERAL DEBILITY In other words a failure and part collapse of the physical forces accompanied usually by great depression of spirits

The best remedy in such cases is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Whether the state of exhaustion has been brought on by excessive physical labor dissipation anxiety of mind exposure, or any other cause, the remedial effect of this great stomachic will be found equally prompt and certain As a restorative, after severe sickness has prostrated the bodily and mental energies it is pronounced by competent medical authority, "THE BEST TONIC IN USE" If men were not foolishly careless about their health and over confident in themselves, they would always when engaged in any work that required great exertion use corresponding means of sustaining their strength For this purpose Hostetters Bitters are invaluable All toilers should use them as an invigorant

For those constantly employed in indoor occupations, especially in crowded workshops they may be reckoned as the very best safeguard of health. Where there is a predisposition to constipation or a tendency to biliousness they may be truly said to be a specific for with it there is no substitute

LAND DEPARTMENT

OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

SALEM OREGON October 2, 1870

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT IS MADE FOR information concerned

First—Congress has granted to the Company all alter nate sections of the public lands designated by odd num bers within a distance of 20 miles on each side of the railroad excepting lands to which a preemption or homestead claim had attached prior to the withdrawal by Government of the lands Coincidence with the first definite location of the East Portland to Roseburg line, May 18 1870 and from the last named point to the California line 1870

Second—Persons who have in good faith settled upon and improved any tract of land granted by said act since the first day of December 1865 and who are not otherwise disqualified from purchase under the provisions of said act, are entitled to purchase the same from the Railroad Company at the Government minimum price of $1 25 per acre in greenbacks or its equivalent within three years after the line of the road is definitely fixed

Third—Persons entitled to purchase under the second section of the act of Congress making the grant, and desiring to purchase from the Company must make payment within three years after the line of the road is definitely fixed in the manner following That is to say they must pay into the hands of the Receiver at the land office of the district in which the land is situated or to the Register of the land office, or to the Treasurer of the Company at Portland, Oregon, or to any of the duly authorized agents of the Company, the price of the land, together with the fees of the Register and Receiver, and the cost of advertising, and must receive from the Receiver or Register duplicate receipts therefor, one of which must be delivered to the Register of the land office, who will thereupon issue to the purchaser a certificate of purchase, which entitles the holder to a patent for the land when the road is completed and accepted by the President of the United States

Fourth—No sales will be made by the Company until the land is offered to it by the United States Land Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior

Purchasers are thus assured that the title they obtain is perfect I R. MOORES
